CONTACT!

Having sailed bravely over the many obstacles that confronted our first twenty-five years of achievement, we now take to the air to embark on another quarter century that holds still greater promise.

Continuing in the modern trend, we take you behind the scenes to show you Northeast in its daily life, Northeast in action as seen intimately by its hundreds of students, and Northeast as it really is, a vital part of all our lives.

With motors roaring and comfortably settled in the seats of this modern plane, let's take off and behold Northeast as the school year rolls by. Ahead of us we have a pleasant journey as we view "NORTHEAST IN ACTION."

At the request of Superintendent George Melcher, permission was granted in September, 1929, by the North Central Association of Secondary Schools and Colleges to conduct an experimental Junior College in the Northeast High School. The supervising committee, consisting of Dr. C. H. Judd and Dr. L. V. Koos of the University of Chicago, and Dr. George Zook, at present Chairman of the American Educational Council, was appointed by the Association. Later Dr. Thomas E. Brenner of the University of Illinois took Dr. Zook's place. Since then Dr. J. M. Woods of Stephens College was placed on the committee instead of Dr. Zook.

The immediate director was, and is, Mr. A. T. Chapin, Principal of Northeast High School. Mr. Chapin is assisted by Mr. G. W. Davis, Vice-Principal of Northeast, and a carefully selected staff.

The Northeast Experiment has attracted wide-spread interest among educators and has undergone searching investigation from many sources. Even though the Experiment is being discontinued with graduation in June, the students who have graduated from the New Plan have proved that which Superintendent Melcher believed was possible: namely, that the two upper years of high school and the two lower years of college overlapped so much that they could be combined and completed in three years.

The Junior College course begins in the Junior year of the high school and has three divisions. The Engineering Course requires mathematics each year: college algebra, trigonometry, physics, Engineering drawing, analytics, calculus, and surveying. Such other subjects as chemistry, English, machine drawing, descriptive geometry, materials, and analytical mechanics are included in the requirements.

The Liberal Arts Course offers the usual subjects given in the Freshman and Sophomore years of college, such as English, mathematics, science, social studies, and foreign languages.

The Business Department is for those students who expect to follow a business career. This course includes at least twenty hours of academic college work. To satisfy the demands, the course is divided into three divisions: Accounting, Clerical, and Secretarial. Students are permitted to major in any one of the three divisions or elect a general course. Upon graduation, they can command a position in six to ten different types of work. This arrangement makes possible not only many chances for employment, but also greater opportunity for advancement. The students are qualified for the specialized jobs of large corporations as well as for the general work of a small office.

With the class of '39, a total of 612 students will have graduated from the New Plan in the course of its existence. Of the 338 who took the Engineering or Liberal Arts courses, 27 per cent have gone on to college and received their Bachelor's Degree in two years. Of the 168 who have graduated from the Business Department, 85 per cent have secured jobs.

The community regrets the passing of this course of study. In their opinion, it has given many boys and girls an opportunity to come in contact with college work which many otherwise would not have experienced. It brings close home to them, also, the privilege of preparing themselves for a business career—a privilege, we believe, not surpassed in Kansas City.

FOOTBALL

ONLY ONE LETTERMAN returned, Captain Jack Hinton, to open the 1938 season. The rest of the team had no previous experience. The team was not victorious, but gave every opponent a tough game.

TWO LINESMEN, Jack Hinton, end, and Carl Lynch, guard, received positions on the Interscholastic League All-Star second team. Five lettermen will return for next year's team.

CAPTAIN JACK HINTON was strength in the purple line. His fast-smashing play earned him a berth on the All-Star second team. Coach E. A. Markey considered him "the best blocker in the league."

SERVING HIS SECOND YEAR as football coach of Northeast, Coach E. A. Markey fashioned a team, out of green material, that made all their opponents fight to win.

THE TEAM

CHEERLEADERS, shown left, led enthusiastic Viking rooters through their paces and made their cheering something to be proud of.

THE CROWD, shown below, was representative of the throngs of loyal Noreasters that attended the sports events.

AN UNSUNG BENEFACTOR, the second team coach, Mr. George Calvert. Coach Calvert has been of great help to Coach Markey in developing many a player for the Varsity.

ALL FINANCIAL BURDENS, both in football and basketball, rested on the shoulders of Mr. D. L. Denniston. This year he was the financial manager of the league during the basketball season.

Cheerleaders Kane, Brown, Tuccillo, and Pep Club Leaders Nancy Mast, Marilyn Henry, and Eileen Bishop put life into any crowd when in action. They're just posing now.

BASKETBALL

Another first class basketball team, thanks to Coach Reaves E. Peters (extreme left), represented Northeast this year. The boys tied for second place, but lost in the play-off to Manual by a fraction of a per cent. Coach was elected commissioner of the Big Six University Athletics, a position of honor and responsibility.

Captain Jim Elliott (left) was an All-Star guard. He was an important cog in the Viking team. His rebound work and his fine passing made the team work more smoothly. He also was a good long shot, which fact kept the Vikings in the game. Joe Taibi was another Viking to make the All-Star. A good shot from any angle, he became the Viking's highest scorer.

Hugh Bounds (left) was a hard working student manager. He was a letterman in football and track. The position earned for him a third letter, that of basketball.

Guy Davis, scrappy purple guard, (left) jumps for the ball with Warren Israel, Paseo. This game was the turning point of the season as the Vikings lost 11-8 and Paseo went on to win the championship.

Cap't. Jim Elliott takes a pass from Cecil Jenkins No. 30 in a pre-season game with Rockhurst.

After the games an old-fashioned box luncheon was held on the school lawn. Our team of fifteen girls came through undefeated.

THE BAND

Under New Management

The band, resplendent in their new, complete uniforms, make an impressive appearance, see below. New instruments, including the large horns seen in the background, add to the appearance and to the efficiency of instrumentation. There are seventy-three members in the band.

A marching band of thirty-six members was organized this year.

New equipment was paid for partly by a concert given in the auditorium of the school.

Greatest honor was the winning of a first rank rating at the Midwest Music Conference at Lawrence, Kansas, April 28.

VIKING VARIETIES —

(Bill Lord)

Plenty of talent was available for this year's annual all-school entertainment as evidenced by the pictures on this page. Variety was the spice of the whole affair.

Mr. Nevin E. Wasson, band and orchestra instructor, was the director; Wallace Hosler was Master of Ceremonies; and Forrest De Haven led the orchestra; Mr. Fred Green's salesmanship classes handled the advertising. A picketing stunt attracted city-wide attention.

At the Home Coming Dance

Being only mortals, students can't be in more than one place at once . . . but it is fun knowing what goes on in other class rooms throughout the building . . . Realizing that every one wonders whether his chums work diligently in class or spend long hours in day-dreaming . . . (and who doesn't) . . . here is an opportunity to find out.

MR. FRANK E. CHAFFEE, instructor of music for twenty-six years here, finishes another successful year.

THE A CAPPELLA CHOIR has received much praise throughout the year. A suiting climax for their diligent work will be their singing "Grief to Glory" by Christiansen at graduation.

NOREASTER ANNUAL STAFF

These are the Editors of the Noreaster, those who made it possible for Northeast to have another year-book; the product they hope will meet with your approval. It is different; therefore it was more difficult to compile. The staff and its advisers await, with bated breath, the reaction of their critics, you, the owners and readers of this book.

Pardon us if we have made errors and omissions. All we can say is that we have done our best in trying to be accurate and fair. Thank you!

SENIOR CLASS PROPHECY

"Let's see! Six pairs of hose, four dresses, two purses . . ." I paused in the midst of my unpacking as my glance rested on the layer of annuals just placed at the bottom of the lingerie drawer. Ten years had passed since my high school graduation and the sight of these thumb-ed-over books, as they always did, brought back many school memories.

This trip, going to the World's Fair, had by some freak coincidence renewed friendships with people I hadn't seen since school days. In the taxi from the station had been Jesse Brents. My redcap was the one and only Oscar Walker. Then the newsboy had been Rodney Hader, the traditionally smiling hotel manager, Hubert Semler, and the eager bell-hop, J. W. Doke. Even in the newspaper I had read, I saw that Mary Gendler was editor of the "Chronicle-Herald," that Robert Bonfils drew a popular eastern comic strip, that the best seller, "Gone with the Breeze," was written by Evelyn Mueller, and that A. J. Crader was the newly-crowned tennis champion.

Oh, but to plan tomorrow's sightseeing! After instructing the maid, Pat Cawby, petite as ever, as to my waking hour, I 'phoned the Knickerbocker Escort Bureau and arranged, to my surprise, to have James Elliott call for me the next day. With all my work finished, I dropped off to sleep and to dream of my school days long past.

Next morning, feeling wonderfully refreshed, I hurried to the lobby and found instead of James Elliott, Carl Lynch who was dressed in the height of fashion as usual. He quickly explained that James was awaiting a wireless message from Odette Kinman in Paris.

Hurrying from the hotel, we sped away in his 1949 roadster. He reached the Fair Grounds in a few minutes and whom should we meet first but Andrew Gallagher and Bettie Strawhun traveling in the bliss of their honeymoon. What happy goings-on of school days those few minutes of conversation recalled!

The rest of the day was really a blur, for we rushed from a pleasure spot to an exhibit, an exhibit to a new building, and reviewed as much as we could in one day. But the old friends whom I saw! At the lunch hour, we visited a quaint little restaurant with Ray Stockbridge as head waiter, Nancy Mast as cigarette girl, and Jack Hinton as "bouncer." At an entertainment feature of the Fair, who should dance onto the stage but Elinor Rawlings and the Wassonettes of Viking Variety Fame. At the side show we ran into Jack Aronson, extolling the wonders of the sword swallower.

Worn out and limping on feet that had been badly stepped on, I was escorted back to my hotel and, bidding Carl Lynch farewell, hurried to my room and fell to the bed with a sigh of relief. I was tired, but it was worth it. Seeing old school chums had brought to mind a multitude of memories. Yet recalling the eccentricities of each one, I found the reason for each one coming to the position that he had in life, and I only hoped that they were happy and really fitted for the roles they were to play in the drama of life.

Actor and Actress: Oscar Walker, Peggy Stone, Jolly Good Boy and Girl; Cecil Jenkins, Katherine Miller, Best Boy and Girl Athlete: J. W. Doke, Odette Kinman, Best Boy Bluffer and Worst Girl Flatterer: Jim Elliott, Doris Puckett, Social Lion and Society Belle.

Guess Who

College Graduates

Richard Abbott, a future scientist is this Abbott. We are quite sure he's not a Babbitt. Thelma Antrim, lovely, sweet, and demure. She's due for success, we're sure! Dorothy Armstrong, she's here; I heard her giggle. Mary Margaret Austin, she sits high in many people's hearts; charming coy, stylish, and smart. Harry Baker, a jolly good fellow — full of wit. Not one of these fellows to give up and quit. Constance Batliner, full of pep and full of fun. She always starts like the pop of a gun. George Beard, a scholar who believes in "letting the women alone." Isadore Bresel, among our he-men he rates No. 1. He's jolly, gay and ready for fun.

Robert Brooks, blonde hair and a smile that wins. He'll go places with that camera and lens. Frances Bruson, determination is her asset. What she tackles she thoroughly finishes. Billie Burkdoll, sophisticated lady, to you we bow. May you ever be as lovely as you are now. Jean Marie Clark, not too large and not too small but sweet and jolly and liked by all. Lois Jean Colliver, a friendly girl we all admire. Of her pretty face we never tire.

Doris Coombs, "Be seen and not heard," is the motto of some but we hope she won't use it in all days to come. Beverly Davis, vim and vigor with a friendly smile, Beverly makes living very worth while. Eleanor Donahue, a charming sweet girl who is destined to be a very good secretary—watch and you'll see.

Helen Douglas, she's worth her weight in gold. Kathleen Easterwood, we hardly know she's here but we'd miss her if she wasn't. Betty Grace Fennel, a bargain at any price. Wanda Ferris, a charming sweet sort of a girl who's as pure and perfect as a pearl. Lucretia Fleming, anything you want to know ??? Ask Lucretia. Roy Fleming, a friendly handclasp, a happy smile, will keep the world going a little while. Dorothy French, a blonde beauty, an I-Q-tie. John Gonser, proud diplomatic sort of man. He can take the raps if anyone can. Richard Gunn, he surely is full of radiant power plus a Gunn full of knowledge. Truett Hause, Truett is so quiet we never can see just what he is or is going to be.

Bill Hill, he's handsome, he's smart and really no trouble. We only wish he had a double. Nancy Jane Hix, it can't happen here — Nancy not being our favorite. Hilda Hughs, a secretary as sweet as ever can be. And a very good model of efficiency.

Dorothy Hurt, after knowing Dorothy we might ask—"All this and heaven too?" Elizabeth Hyre, school is great but fun is greater. Dolores Johnson, always laughing, always gay, ever cheerful all the day. Jeanne Johnson, what the well-dressed secretary wears; what the skilled musician does. Wilma Latta, she's sweet, she's different—she's smart. Laura Little, early to bed and late to rise. Think of the wear and tear on the poor bed. Rozelle Long, with her mind on study and her heart on Watts, we wish this girl just lots and lots.

James Maienschein, the style of his clothes alone would pass this unsung Romeo of the class. Glenn Massie, here and there and all around. Wherever you need him he's always found. Keith McNeal, though he's full of fun and full of joy, without a mouth there'd be no boy.

Dorothy Means, a winsome young lass with a winning style, industrious and charming all the while. Phyllis Miller, other things we might repeat but most of all we say she's sweet. Mildred Mills, a lovable Vi-Queen who does her bit. She's somebody who never quits. Ben Moore, those who say much may influence, but there is likewise a reward for the faithfully silent. Robert Nelson, a little of this, a little of that, a grand personality, a likable chap. Carmen Nichols, Music Maestro, please! Swing out in the symphony of life like you swing out on the keyboard, Carmen, and the world will dance for you.

Lucile Nininger, glowing black hair, snapping eyes, one who works and always tries. Lorena Orcutt, beauty has charm and charm has she. Harriet Page, "Heaven can wait" when she's around.

College Graduates

Bob Palmer, personality, originality, lots of pep and go. When Bob's about, there is no doubt there'll always be a show. Bill Parker, he has no use for yellow moons but can really draw cartoons. Susan Parabok, toward success she will ever steer, and always get it, never fear. Betty Lee Patterson, as quiet as a mouse, as deep as a well, and what she'll do you never can tell.

Shirley Jean Payne, her laughter has a musical ring. She can see a joke in everything. Alvin Phillips, tall as a tower and Oh! What power (with the girls). Matthew Poppa, he's a jolly good fellow and we're sure he won't stop until he has made his place at the top. Ruth Purile, perhaps gentlemen do prefer blondes—until Ruth comes around. Gloria Roach, she has eyes, she has looks; now she smiles, now she hooks. Wofford Roberts, another one of these quiet men who will surprise us one day.

Victoria Robinson, sedate and trim she'll surely win, with her intelligence and happy grin. George Rush, Rush is sure slow when he starts for his classes but when he gets out Rush rushes. Doris Sanford, clear blue eyes and lovely face give her a certain charm and grace.

Marjorie Schoonover, life to her is just a game which, if played right, will bring you fame. Dorothe Schuepbach, question of the moment: When and where was Dorothe's top? Wanda Skaggs, so little and sweet, and so very neat. George Harvey Smith, I will find a way or make one. Richard Smith, it seems to us, it's certainly no myth, champion sportsman of the class, Richard Smith. James Spaeth, he's small, yes, but golly whiz; it's the brains that count in any quiz.

Don Sturges, why should I worry, there'll be great men after me. Thelma Triplett, in all the wide world you never will find another pal so understanding and kind. Virgie Vance, carefree, cute and confident. Millard Watts, he studies hard and he studies "Long." Maybe he's right and maybe he's wrong.

Jack Williams, I don't care what happens just so it doesn't happen to me. Mary Louise Williams, beautiful eyes and air of grace, give her a charm that is known anyplace. Lucille Wynn, full of vitality, vigor and vim, that defines Miss Lucille Wynn. Margaret Zammar, for she's a jolly good fellow! Leave it to her to find the silver lining to every cloud. Virginia Bechtel, a sweet little headache! (Or do we mean heartache?) Helen Breidenthal, one of the best in all this great mass. She certainly ranks in the A No. 1 class.

Alice Gillespie, when it comes to pep and go, we can say she's never slow. Elaine Grant, charm, refinement and plenty of taste. If you would keep up with her you'd better make haste. Dorothy Lutz, there's no work done when Dorothy's around 'cause for a good time she's always bound.

Doris Lynch, the lovable mistress of the piano keys, a successful composer we think she'll be. Kenneth Martin, he has a way that will take him where he wants to go. Laura Mattucks, always moving, never still. She conquers almost any "Hill."

Dollie Newlon, she's pretty to walk with, witty to talk with, and pleasant to think about too. Wade Rubick, at inter-school affairs he's best. Winning debates fills him with zest. Clarence Rupe, diagnostic, technical, intelligent, chummy Doctor Rupe, we call him. Edward Springer, as a swell fellow he'll always rank—Eddie with his jokes and pranks. Charles Van Buskirk, he's grand and in his quiet way, a friend to all he'll always stay. Marian Sheets, she's sweet and cute, and smart to boot. John Love, he jumped and jumped high to the sky, and we agree that he's one swell guy. Fred Diebel, he can blow a horn par excellence, and his personaltiy is plus perfect.

What Is the Future of Electricity?

The marvels of electricity a half century ago were little known. Perhaps in just a few years future generations will be saying that about 1939.

But these new developments will only come with the welding of long range planning, research, large monetary expenditures and skilled man power into one closely knit unit. The wise expenditure of labor, time, and money has enabled this Company to meet the demands of this growing community for electric energy and the building of an adequate reservoir for future growth. This is shown by the present capital investment of approximately ninety-seven million dollars and the employment of more than two thousand skilled employees.

Research is constantly going on to increase the efficiency and to extend the helpfulness of electricity in all phases of life. And because of this desire and readiness of investor owned electric service companies to delve into the unknown, electricity is helping increase the span of life, reduce human drudgery and make living more worth while.

CONTRASTS!

DIAMONDS! COAL! The same basic element . . . but what a difference! A million years lies between the two. One is sold by the carat, the other by the ton.

ENGRAVINGS! All made from the same base metal, copper or zinc. But what a difference there can be among them. Some are faithful, facsimile reproductions of your artwork, or your idea . . . the same life, brilliance, color and detail. Others are just pictures, with little else but a resemblance to the original.

Dear Dora:

and so (as we've spent in this School all these days)
we'll come to recall this Parting of ways.

Meanwhile may your progress be your health & your happiness complete & secure.

It's certainly been a joy being with you,
working with you on the annual, knowing
I have a true friend who is willing to help for the joy of helping. In fact, enough it doesn't show it here, I cannot find the words to express my true feeling. May we ever be as close together in thoughts & ideals as we now are & remain friends forever.
Sincerely, your "twin"
